Religion seems truly Pleasant and agreable, when Practice removes the Difficulty, and makes the dreaded Labour easie; the pious Soul would not then quit his present State for all the transitory Enjoyments the World can afford, being convinc'd this Life is but momentary.

If thou thinkest twice before thou speakest once, thou wilt speak twice the better for it. Vive le Roy. Brooke

Gaze not on Beauty too much lest it blast thee, nor too long lest it blind thee; nor too near lest it burn thee, if thou like it, it deceivs thee, if thou love it, it disturbs thee, if thou lust after it, it destroys thee, if Virtue accompany it, 'tis the Hearts Paradise, if Vice associate it, 'tis the Souls Purgatory. In fine 'tis the Wise mans Bonfire and the fools furnace. ambrumdnemfuguhinkuhuzt.
